Verse 1

She's got a man another situation
I understand that's how it's got to be.
Ain't tryin' ta cause another complication
I'd walk away but I'm in too deep.

Can't make no plans got me so frustrated,
Cause in my heart I want you desperately.
Done ran away from all the girls I been dating
When I'm with them it's only you I see.

Chorus

And she promised me that it would take some time
But she would leave him alone
And the thought of her loving only me
That's the thing that keeps me strong

She gives me all her love
But only half the time
Still it's more than enough, to keep my hope alive.

Verse 2

Just yesterday I saw them shopping at the mall
Looked like she tried on a diamond ring
The way he held her damn near drove me crazy
Spent half the day wishing that it was me

I can't make no plans got me so frustrated,
Cause in my heart I want you desperately.
Done ran away from all the girls I been dating
When I'm with them it's only you I see.

Repeat chorus

Secret rendezvous to just spend time with you
Girl I need you in my life
If I had to choose, no doubt it'd still be you
Just as long as

She gives me all her love,
But only half the time,
still it's more than enough, (still it's more than enough)
To keep my hope alive.

Donnell: She gives me all her love, and it's enough for me cause
I'm never gonna leave and
She gives me all her love, and that's enough for me cause
I'm never gonna leave and

Ooo na na na na na na na, Ooo na na na na na na na

Ooo na na na na na na na, Ooo na na na na na na na

She gives me all her love
But only half the time
Still it's more than enough, to keep my hope alive.

Ooo na na na na na na na, Ooo na na na na na na na

Ooo na na na na na na na, Ooo na na na na na na na
