I remember when we used to love
It seems like yesterday
You know that I understand
But I wish that you could stay
But you live far away, seem so far away

Now I can't wait until the summertime
I know, you'll be coming back real soon
Baby, you know how much I'm missin' you
Said, I'm missin' you, I'm missin' you

I been thinking about you lady
Things ain't been the same since you've been gone
I can't live without you lady
So won't you come back, come back?

No matter how long it takes, I'll wait for you
As I watch the seasons pass me by God only knows that there's no mountains I won't climb
'Cuz you stay in my heart and always on my mind

Life without you is just an empty world, yeah
What once was clear is now a blur
And this is something that I can't ignore
I'm missing you, I'm missing you

I been thinking about you lady
Things ain't been the same since you've been gone
I can't live without you lady
So won't you come back, come back?

Said, I been waiting
Love I just can't live without
Oh yeah
Instead I've been

I been thinking about you lady
Things ain't been the same since you've been gone
I can't live without you lady
So won't you come back, come back?

I been thinking about you lady

Things ain't been the same since you've been gone
I can't live without you lady
So won't you come back, come back?

I been thinking about you lady
Things ain't been the same since you've been gone
I can't live without you lady
So won't you come back, come back?

Come back baby
