Wassup, baby
Oh, you can't say "Wassup" back?
Anyway, I see you finally made it home
Yeah, yeah, yeah, I know
Oh, you was too drunk to drive, huh
Damn right, I got a problem
Huh, it's all good, trust me, it's all good

Imagine that your girl came home
Walking a little different
Got a pep in her step
She ain't paying you no attention

She hits the shower first (Shower first)
But she don't mention
She's washing off that dirt she done got in

Imagine if your girl was home
(And you get off work early)
She don't even know
'Cause she won't answer the phone

(But you sense something's up)
And barge through your front door
But there's a fellow
Running out your back door

What would you do?
'Cause Shawty playing games with you while you at work
She been hitting you where it hurts
Got a couple dudes on her team but you don't know
In your home, she's always on the go

What would you do?
Would you give a second chance
Hoping that it won't happen again?
Now flip that around, you know that's what we do
We tell them that we love them but our hearts ain't true

Imagine if she crushed dudes like you crushed chicks

(Imagine that)
Have a starting five and your position was the bench
(Imagine that)

Busy when you call, don't return your messages
(Oh, imagine that)
Ball till she fall while you taking care of kids
(Imagine that)

Imagine if she don't wanna tell you where she been
(Imagine that)
Said she hanging with her girls but she hanging out
with him
(Oh, imagine that)
Imagine if everything that I said ain't true
She home alone waiting while you're out doing you

Imagine you were on the road
(And she call you and she say that she pregnant)
You ask how many months
She don't know yet

But you think to yourself
It's been a month since you been gone
Who been sneaking in
When you're not at home?

Imagine now you're all alone
('Cause she took off with the other dude)
Left the dog and the kids too

Shawty left a letter on the couch
Saying you can have the house
She's in love with him
And they're moving down south

What would you do?
'Cause Shawty playing games with you while you're at
She been hitting you where it hurts
Left you for another dude, that's gotta hurt
When you know you really don't deserve it

What would you do?
'Cause the kids don't understand
That their mother left you for another man
Flip that around, you know that's what we do
We tell them that we love 'em but our hearts ain't true

Imagine if she crushed dudes like you crushed chicks
(Imagine that)

Have a starting five and your position was the bench
(Imagine that)

Busy when you call, don't return your messages
(Imagine that)
Ball till she fall while you taking care of kids
(Oh, imagine that)

Imagine if she don't wanna tell you where she been
(Imagine that)
Said she hanging with her girls but she hanging out
with him
(Oh, imagine that)
Imagine if everything that I said ain't true
And she's home alone waiting for you, oh, yeah

(You know, put yourself in her shoes)
You gotta learn to treat her right
Right, oh, yeah
He gotta treat you right, babe

Imagine that, oh, oh
(Imagine that)
Can you imagine that?
(Imagine that, oh, imagine that)
'Cause you know what I'm talking about
(Imagine that)

Imagine if she crushed dudes like you crushed chicks
(Imagine that)
Have a starting five and your position was the bench
(Oh, imagine that)

Busy when you call, don't return your messages
(Imagine that)
Ball till she fall while you taking care of kids
(Imagine that)

Imagine if she don't wanna tell you where she been
Said she hanging with her girls but she hanging out
with him
You don't wanna imagine that
