I got a plan and I'll stay on my own
I got a dream that I should let go
Waiting for the day to come

I know, I got a player that is out of control
You gotta stay on my radio
Waiting for the day to come

And I know
Spill it on fire and gold
How could I lose control
Cause it's you and I higher than all
Fire is going away
You're a star now stay on your own
I feel you spin my life outa control

I gotta work it out, take it away
I gotta feel every word you say
I'm waiting for the day to come

I know, I feel I keep crossing the line
And it feels like a crime zip-line
Waiting for the day to come

And I know
Spill it on fire and gold
How could I lose control
Cause it's you and I higher than all
Fire is going away
You're a star now stay on your own
I feel you spin my life outa control

And I know...

And I know
Spill it on fire and gold
How could I lose control
Cause it's you and I higher than all
Fire is going away
You're a star now stay on your own
I feel you spin my life outa control

Spill it on fire and gold
How could I lose control
Cause it's you and I higher than all
Fire is going away
You're a star now stay on your own
I feel you spin my life outa control
