(Donna Fargo)

There was a time I was afraid to love or be loved
And hurting was for the weak and not the strong
And I've gone through all kinds of things on promises
And I still don't know the difference between right and wrong.

I keep hearing myself asking me who am I
And what is it I'm tryin' so hard to do
And I'm not sure I've ever trusted anyone completely
But does it matter that I took a chance on you.

Does it matter that I took a chance on lovin' you
When I didn't even believe in me
Does it matter at all to you that I wanted to be what you wanted me to
And I wanted so much to be just right for you.

I guess it's just my nature to ask questions
So I hope that you don't mind much when I do
And even tho I know I'll never know all of the answers
Does it matter that I took a chance on you.

Does it matter at all to you that I wanted to be what you wanted me to
Does it matter that I took a chance on you...
