I used to cry over you
I lost my heart and there was nothin' I could do
I couldn't smile when you would leave
If you were mad I couldn't find the strength to breathe

I used to pine for what we had
I woke up hurtin' in my heart for you so bad
A stronger love had never been
I used to miss you and all the times we spent

Not anymore, not now, you tore my heart out
Gave me up and brought me down
You set me free, walked out the door
I used to need you to be happy, not anymore

Time heals everything
You almost killed me when you left and now I sing
I think of you now and then
But you'll never get the chance to break my heart again

Not anymore, not now, you tore my heart out
Gave me up and broke me down
And now I'm free, now I'm sure
I used to think I really loved you
I used to think I'd die without you, not anymore
