You look at me
What are you trying to hide?
Don't you know
I'm a woman of insight
And I see clouds in your eyes
Dangerous clouds in your eyes

You have to be true to me
If you want to be with me
Cause your body never lies
I can read in your eyes
What you really feel
If you want to be with me
You better be true to me

You smile at me
You smile with your lips only
It feels unreal
Cause you just cannot conceal
Those clouds in your eyes
Dark clouds in your eyes

You have to be true to me
If you want to be with me
Because I can read your heart
Your body always reveals
What you really feels
If you want to be with me
You better be true to me

You have to be true to me
If you want to be with me
Cause your body never lies
I can read in your eyes
What you really feel
