I'd be your bird
Falling from the sky
I don't want to fly without you
I'd be your fish
Drowning in the sea
I don't want to swim without you
I'd be your star
A star that doesn't shine
I don't want to shine without you
I'd be a tree, without you
Cuts off from its roots

Without you
In the shadow of your love
Without you
In the shadow of your love
Without you
In the shadow of your love
Without you
In the shadow of your love
Without you
In the shadow of your love

I feel warm in the shadow of your love
Found my home in the big land of your love
I feel warm in the shadow of your love

I feel warm in the shadow of your love
Found my home in the big land of your love
I feel warm in the shadow of your love

Without you
In the shadow of your love
Without you
In the shadow of your love
