Sometimes I feel so bad
When gravity seems to be too high
When every word I say is a lie
When every face I see looks grey
When spirit is low and tension's high
Then time is right for a change of sight
And I know where to go

Water so blue, water icecool
Make me feel like a friendly fish
Stroke by stroke
I'm crossing the pool of
Water so blue

Sometimes I feel so good
When energy is high and bright
When every word I say is right
When clouds are chased away by the sun
And when you are near - no need to run
Then I want you to come with me
And you know where to go

Water so blue, water icecool
Make me feel like a friendly fish
Stroke by stroke
I'm crossing the pool of
Water so blue

Water so blue, water icecool
Let me be your friendly fish
Stroke by stroke
We cross the pool of
Water so blue
