Ooo

Hey baby

Ho, baby

We never know

Where the winds of love will carry

Our hearts unfold

Into the hands of time

Nothing will ever change

This love we share

No matter what it takes

I will be there

When the sun goes high

You pray for clouds to break

Reach up to the sky and pray for it to rain

When the times get hard you rely on your faith

We'll be together

If there's any way at all

It there's any way at all

Don't be afraid

'Cause we're in this love together

We'll ride the waves

'Til we reach the other side

Your love is life to me

None can compare

No one cares our will, our need

I will be there

When the sun goes high

You pray for clouds to break

Reach up to the sky and pray for it to rain

(For it to rain)

When the times get hard you rely on your faith

You know that we'll be together

If there's any way at all

(If there's any way)

It there's any way at all

If there's any way at all
We'll be together baby
If there's any way at all
We'll be together forever and ever

Reach up to the sky and pray for it to rain
(Oh, baby)
When the times get hard you rely on your faith
We'll be together
If there's any way at all
(If there's any way)
If there's any way at all
Ooo
