Hey hey oh
Donna, what's going on?

1 2 3

Chorus:

We're like crayons melting in the sunshine
Take a big eraser and wipe out the line
Oh ,oh what's up tell me what's a-happening
say you want love but why ain't you sacrificing?
we're like crayons melting in the sunshine
I'll colour your world if you colour mine
Oh ,oh what's up tell me what's a-happening
say you want love but why ain't you sacrificing?

Come on over you sleepyhead it's time to colour my dress in red
It don't matter if it's day or night we play in colour not in black in white

Come on let's colour the world in green
Let's make a difference in the way we dream
We're going to colour a smiling face on the people of the human race

123

I'll take a walk on the wild side
Don't be afraid you can be mine
In and out, in and out, in and out of the lines
Take a walk on the wild side
Don't be afraid you could be mine
In and out of the lines, in and out , in and out of the lines

Chorus

(everybody dreaming)

If we mix in some pink and blue

We get a beating at a purple hue
Mellow yellow when the day is done
Becomes the orange of the setting sun

123 come on

I'll take a walk on the wild side
Don't be afraid you can be mine
In and out, in and out, in and out of the lines
Take a walk on the wild side
Don't be afraid you could be mine
In and out of the lines, in and out , in and out of the

Chorus

Red is the colour of the blood in our veins oh
Like the rainbow we are one the same (just one yeah)
(everybody dreaming)
Yellow is the colour of the sun we share
The green grass is everywhere
(everybody dreaming)

Chorus
