"Cry Of A Walking Heart"

I stand before you with my mind open wide waiting to receive whatever will be the world the eyes survey is not the only world for deep within the soul can be found all things Like the shape of sound, the shape of wind like the shape of things when they first begin how could I stop what I had to start the cry of a waking heart

(Chorus):

All I want is to love you all I need is to get through what I believe is a light in the dark the crying of a waking heart

You shine inside me like the moon in the stream and the waters flow around me

Like the colour of sun I cannot explain behind the familiar the view is strange maybe to love is to fly apart and this emotion the cry of a waking heart

(Chorus):

(Bridge):

Golden slumber
now and forever truly rising imagine heaven one vibration this eternal thing (Chorus x2, out)
