Highway lead him to where he's never been
Show that drifter what he's never seen
Introduce him to this, acquaint him with that
Gotta keep searching like a stray stray cat

Highway runner
Chasing time since the day he was born
Highway runner
Racing time around the world one more time
For one more time

It ain't even you can hold him down
Country's just a breath from town to town
He got restless feet and a restless mind
Never wanna travel through the same place twice

Highway runner
Chasing time since the day he was born
Highway runner
Racing time around the world one more time
For one more time

Highway runner
Chasing time since the day he was born
Highway runner
Racing time around the world one more time
I said one more time

Highway runner, highway runner
One more time, one more time
You're gonna meet your match
Highway runner
