Straight outta school but still just a fool thought the streets were paved with gold he moved oof the block and found he was lost in a world he'd never known he had to hustle so he could pay the rent played all the aces and wound up president
you see it's okay
got to find your own way keep on trying all day and you know your time will come you'll get your chance to run

Chorus:

You're livin' in America you're livin' in the home of the dream
you're livin' in America
just make it what you want it to be Soap opera child with hope in her eyes lookin' for a starrin' role she came into town and acted the clown had a long, long way to go waitin' on tables and pumpin' gasoline she served an agent, now she's a movie queen
keep on tryin' all day and you know the time will come for each of everyone
Chorus:
You'll stand alone on a long hard road with a crowd that you can't see just start by steppin' out then let your mind run free Chorus:

It's okay
you're livin' in the USA find your dream you know that dream can set you free
It's okay
we're part of a United State you and me can be just what we wanna be he's okay
he left the block and reached the top
she's all right
the agent put her name in lights He's okay
he's paid his rent he's president
she's on your TV screen tonight
