Ordinary Miracle

Turn around, face yourself, look deep inside find the place where you once believed there's a child in your heart who still wants to fly learn to trust what you can't see

This is no ordinary miracle
This is no ordinary life
the things you thought could never be are just as real as the things you see open your heart and believe

Spoken:
You'd better believe

Every word and every wish needs to be spoken lights the fire that feeds every dream so close your eyes, say a prayer leave the door open a little faith is all you need

This is no ordinary miracle
This is no ordinary life
the things you thought could never be
open your heart and believe

So much of life yet to discover so many secrets to uncover these are the keys you're holding right there in your hands

Spoken:
And there ain't nothing you can do about it

This is no ordinary miracle
This is no ordinary life
the things you thought could never be
are just as real as the things you see
open your heart and believe

This is no ordinary life
This is no ordinary miracle
This is no ordinary life

This is no ordinary, this is no ordinary miracle
This is no ordinary, this is no ordinary miracle
This is no ordinary, this is no ordinary miracle
This is no ordinary, this is no ordinary miracle
