Theme to Dream a Lot (I will live for love) By, Donna Summers

There's got to be a way that I can dream
Simply close my eyes and see
The worlds I've never known
What places that my soul has been

Sometimes I need to run away and hide
I sail along so high
Till nothing's in my sky
Except the stars that fill my eyes

(Chorus)
I'm searching for the one who holds the key
To all this crazy life I lead
Through galaxies in time
A solitary star that joins

Sometimes I need to close my eyes and breathe
Inhale what life has given me
A bastion to ignite
A flaming heart in flight
I close my eyes
I breathe
I'm free

(Chorus)
I've always must have known
A lover of his own
'Cause that is when he wrote
Everything I felt for love

And I will fight for love in life and in love
And I will hold the things above
I'm strong enough to slay the dragon that's there
I will live for love

I've thought about this life
This dream will never die
So only know that I

I will live for love

Always must have known a lover of his own
That is when he wrote everything I felt for love
I will ever fight
I will live for life
I will live for love
