Hey hey oh
Hey hey oh
Donna, what's going on?
1 2 3

We're like crayons melting in the sunshine
Take a big eraser and wipe out the line
Oh, oh what's up? Tell me what's a-happening
Say you want love but why ain't you sacrificing?

We're like crayons melting in the sunshine
I'll color your world if you color mine
Oh, oh what's up? Tell me what's a-happening
Say you want love but why ain't you sacrificing?

Now come on over you, sleepyhead
It's time to color my dress in red
It don't matter if it's day or night
We play in color not in black in white

Come on, let's color the world in green
Let's make a difference in the way we dream
We're going to color a smiling face
On the people of the human race
1 2 3

I'll take a walk on the wild side
Don't be afraid, you can be mine
In and out, in and out, in and out of the lines
Take a walk on the wild side
Don't be afraid, you could be mine
In and out of the lines, in and out, in and out of the lines

We're like crayons melting in the sunshine
Take a big eraser and wipe out the line
Oh, oh what's up? Tell me what's a-happening
Say you want love but why ain't you sacrificing?

We're like crayons melting in the sunshine
I'll color your world if you color mine
Oh, oh what's up? Tell me what's a-happening

Say you want love but why ain't you sacrificing?

If we mix in some pink and blue
We get a beating heart of purple hue
Mellow yellow when the day is done
Becomes the orange of the setting sun
1 2 3, come on

I'll take a walk on the wild side
Don't be afraid, you can be mine
In and out, in and out, in and out of the lines
Take a walk on the wild side
Don't be afraid, you could be mine
In and out of the lines
[Incomprehensible]

We're like crayons melting in the sunshine
Take a big eraser and wipe out the line
Oh, oh what's up? Tell me what's a-happening
Say you want love but why ain't you sacrificing?

We're like crayons melting in the sunshine
I'll color your world if you color mine
Oh, oh what's up? Tell me what's a-happening
Say you want love but why ain't you sacrificing?

Red is the color of the blood in our veins, oh
And like the rainbow we are one the same, just one yeah
Yellow is the color of the sun we share
And the green grass is everywhere

We're like crayons melting in the sunshine
Take a big eraser and wipe out the line
Oh, oh what's up? Tell me what's a-happening
Say you want love but why ain't you sacrificing?

We're like crayons melting in the sunshine
I'll color your world if you color mine
Oh, oh what's up? Tell me what's a-happening
Say you want love but why ain't you sacrificing?

We're like crayons melting in the sunshine
Take a big eraser and wipe out the line
Oh, oh what's up? Tell me what's a-happening
Say you want love but why ain't you sacrificing?

We're like crayons melting in the sunshine
I'll color your world if you color mine
Oh, oh what's up? Tell me what's a-happening
Say you want love but why ain't you sacrificing?
