Damn man
I had it all before I got up in here

Girl, I know that you been creepin'
Can't believe it but I'm locked up in here
Don't get no letters or no money or no visits
It's like I don't exist

And if it wasn't for my daughters
Then I wouldn't have no reason to live
But I've come to realize that life goes on

Since the day that I got locked up
My life's been different, oh yeah
'Cuz she was my soul, my heart
My love, my best friend

I can't understand why she won't accept my phone calls?
Should've knew something was wrong when mama said
"Baby, it's time for you to move on"
Now everything I had is lost and gone

Girl, I know that you been creepin'
Can't believe it but I'm locked up in here
Don't get no letters or no money or no visits
It's like I don't exist

And if it wasn't for my daughters
Then I wouldn't have no reason to live
See but I've come to realize that life goes on

See I never thought you would Leave me dry and all alone
'Cuz part of the reason I sit where I am
I was tryin' to provide a home, yeah

See now I know I'm not going be there like I used to
But your promise to me was that you never would leave
And that remains to be seen
I guess everything I had is lost and gone

Girl, I know that you been creepin'
Can't believe it but I'm locked up in here
Don't get no letters or no money or no visits
It's like I don't exist

And if it wasn't for my daughters
Then I wouldn't have no reason to live
That I've come to realize that life goes on

See I had it all when I was on the streets
I gave you everything, yeah
Everything that you could want
Now that I'm locked away with no where to turn
Now you wanna up and run
How could you do me wrong?

All those precious times that we used to share
Been thrown away as far as I can see
See I gave my heart and soul
And now you turn away from me

Girl, I know that you been creepin'
Can't believe it but I'm locked up in here
Don't get no letters or no money or no visits
It's like I don't exist

And if it wasn't for my daughters
Then I wouldn't have no reason to live
But I've come to realize that life goes on

Girl, I know that you been creepin'
Can't believe it but I'm locked up in here
Don't get no letters or no money or no visits
It's like I don't exist

And if it wasn't for my daughters
Then I wouldn't have no reason to live
