you manipulate and dictated what i'm supposed to think i dont understand how you swept in and blinded me i was so in love, yea i was so dedicated to you (yeaahh) thought everything was perfect and i thought nothing would change now all of a sudden
i can see right through your games and i cant believe i gave my whole life to you

(Hook):

it hurts so much inside
i dont know how you controlled my mind and theres no way you can make it right dont think i could forgive you if i tried

(Chorus):

cus you brainwashed me thinking that we would last forever but now its over
i really need to clear my head and start over
i dont know how i let you brainwash me
why didnt i see it,
i must have really been a fool to believe it
but i believed it

girl you got me out here trying to figure out just how to breathe i know which way to go its been so long since i was free i often change my life you left me hung out dry when you (led me on)
and thought nothing would change
and i could see right through your games and i cant believe i gave my whole life to you (noooo)

(Hook):

and theres no way you can make it right dont think i could forgive you if i try

(Chorus):

cus you brainwashed me (hey, yeah) thinking that we would last forever (thinking we would last forever)
but now its over (baby)
i dont know how i let you brainwash me (do brainwash me) you have me thinking i could live without you (i could live without you)
why didnt i see it,

(RaVaughn):

i closed my eyes
everything around me is much clearer these eyes so blind

(Donnie):

and i would let you take over my whole life im gonna start a new and its gonna be without you

make sure this never ever happens again but i wont be too afraid to take a chance and i'll never let another dude

(Donnie):

i swear to myself ill never let another girl brainwash me

(Chorus):

you brainwashed me
you have me thinking that we would last forever
why didnt i see it,
i must have really been a fool to believe it
