I am me
As much as you may try, you could never be
If you step into my mind, then you'll see
I am me
I am me
I am me

Not for nothing I don't need no introduction
But now I guess I'm just a f*cking topic of discussion
Nobody gave me nothing created my own sound
Created my own style I am the a town
Where I'm at now? N*ggas think they know me
And it's killing me so slowly man all these n*ggas phony
They got me ready to quit and I ain't drop the album yet
The real fans don't threat
I ain't stoppin' til I'm set
They hatin' is not a threat
To the all amazing Donnis
Man I'm just being honest
Who know me better than me
Who's seeing the things I see?
I'll wait let a n*gga know
I ain't think so, man these haters they don't know

I am me
As much as you may try, you could never be
If you step into my mind, then you'll see
I am me

The one and only
Ain't no phony
They don't know me
[repeat 4x]

All in all I'm just a kid tryin' to get it in
By doing everything I can except for fittin' in Man I'm sittin' in a throne on my own
There ain't no competition I'm alone in my zone
From a city where the kids is so accident prone

To call Jones Beureu home is a fail loving song
And they don't understand that
But show me where the map at
And I'll point out the zones
Where the n*ggas set the traps at
And when you grow around that
You gotta face found facts
You's a statistic
But ain't no different
From any other brotha
Who made it out the gutta
Then show all them mothasuckas
You know how to get them numbas

I am me
As much as you may try, you could never be
If you step into my mind, then you'll see
I am me

The one and only
Ain't no phony
They don't know me
[repeat 4x]

In 93 I chose the rhyme that rhyme chose me
And in 03 we almost had the whole deal
But watch this yea I bet we get em for the whole meal
They give me cold chills
Just to think about all the shit I had done
Just to be number one
I missed more than one
Birthday or vacay, and I say
If I could take it back what I delay
I would cos my family more important than the fortunes
Cos now I'm the captain of the plane
And if I turn around then all the shit will be in vain
So I'ma maintain my little altitude
I'm maintaining the attitude
Then keeping y'all first
Cos this rap shit is worse
Wassup

I am me
As much as you may try, you could never be
If you step into my mind, then you'll see
I am me
I am me
I am me
