[Verse 1: Donnis]

I drop one here and look at me I'm on
See right now I'm here but later on I'm gone
Tonight it's LA, tomorrow I'm in Toronto
Backstage champagne, ho's gettin' low low
But just last week I wasn't the one they would go for Looking at these people like who the f*ck do I know know
Man, I stay surrounded by strangers who don't care about me
They only care about the paper, care about the hits
They don't care if I exist
This game is so shity, it'll eat ya alive
I ain't even got no time to kiss my mama goodbye
Give my paps a hi-five, look at how time flies
Luckily God's the pilot, I'm just here for the ride
Flying first class, lookin' through the glass wonderin'
Who gonna love me if I ever stop plummetin'
From fourty thousand feet just me and my ecstasy
Let's see

[Chorus]

One last coffee, one last breath and one last cigarette
And I'm outta here, say I'm outta here
One last coffee, one last breath and one last cigarette
And I'm outta here, say I'm outta here

[Verse 2: Donnis]

Girl, you were supposed to be my chick lover and best friend
So I already tell you but right here is where the bet ends
You lost a best man no take gigs
You fine, I see why he wanna make you his
I love your mind, and that's why I wanna make you mine
But you're wasting time cause right now
You think he better, no you see me making calls
No you see me sendin' letters
Threw away all your pictures instead of tryin' to picture
So in this picture perfect

See I don't see the purpose in chasing and playing games
You already knew my aim, you the only girl I claim See now you should be ashamed cause through the tears and pain
I'm the one who still remains
You complain, I made it better
The world was cold, I was your sweater
But now you gotta face the weather all alone
'Cause 'together and forever' is forever postponed

[Chorus]

One last coffee, one last breath and one last cigarette
And I'm outta here, say I'm outta here
One last coffee, one last breath and one last cigarette
And I'm outta here, say I'm outta here

[Verse 3: Tony Williams]

Climbing to the top, gettin' to the next level shit,
F*ck my old miss, I'm on my rebel shit
I say (?), I say hello to Rish
I say goodbye to haters, and say hello to chips
Ain't a problem that I can't fix
I just watch my hands and shit
I planned for this
They gonna try shoot me down I crash landed this
And walked away without a scratch, I ain't even react
In the past I said some things that I can never take back
So now I just relax and tell them haters take that Even when I collapse, I'm collapsing as a God
Never ever will remember my memoirs

[Chorus]

One last coffee, one last breath and one last cigarette
And I'm outta here, say I'm outta here
One last coffee, one last breath and one last cigarette
And I'm outta here, say I'm outta here
