[Chorus]

Never really been good at expressing myself
So I chose to write you a song
All the times that we had
Good and the bad
I never meant to do you wrong
So I made a song for every ex
Song for every ex
Song for every ex that I have
So I made a song for every ex
Song for every ex
Song for every ex that I have

This song is for my ex's, not to be specific Ain't asking for forgiveness, just take a minute, listen Envision what this could be, what this would be if you and me could
Just see eye to eye, and why we broke up, I don't really know why
And do I want it back, I ain't even gone lie, naw, I ain't even gone lie
Not a day goes by I ain't thinking bout you or tryna come through
But you can do you, and I'ma do me, cause truthfully Ain't no n*gga cool as me, but missing how we used to be
I'm missing how we used to be

[Chorus]

Never really been good at expressing myself
So I chose to write you a song
All the times that we had
Good and the bad
I never meant to do you wrong
So I made a song for every ex
Song for every ex
Song for every ex that I have
So I made a song for every ex
Song for every ex
Song for every ex that I have

And I don't wanna f*ck every girl in the world, no, not every girl in the world
No, wherever I may be in the world, if we been there right then I care
Cause I'm reminded of you, and if what mama tell me about timing is true
It'll all come back, or I'll fall back, cause you'll call back
But take it from me, I'm all outta tears, (?)
And I don't mean to treat you different, cause baby you so significant
But I'm no longer interested, no I'm no longer interested

[Chorus]

Never really been good at expressing myself
So I chose to write you a song
All the times that we had
Good and the bad
I never meant to do you wrong
So I made a song for every ex
Song for every ex
Song for every ex that I have
So I made a song for every ex
Song for every ex
Song for every ex that I have

If you listenin' now, I apologize
Ain't here to point fingers, ain't here to tell lies It's the way that I feel inside, that drives me insane on days like this
So I get high, then I feel low, and I don't know which way to go
So I send texts to you, make calls, and I run game and you won't fall for that Say your new man ain't all of that, but you say he treats you nice
But I'm the one who did everything you like
And if you leave him now it just wouldn't be right
So you stay there, and I'ma hold tight
And I'ma wait for them blocked calls at night
And I'ma wait for them blocked calls at night

[Chorus]

Never really been good at expressing myself
So I chose to write you a song
All the times that we had
Good and the bad
I never meant to do you wrong
So I made a song for every ex
Song for every ex
Song for every ex that I have

So I made a song for every ex
Song for every ex
