Just the other day while we were taking a walk,
My father said to me son it's time we had a talk,
Time you're in on the secret of the family tree when you grow up one day you'll be -

Chorus:

The last of the red hot lovers
When you were born a gypsy said that you would be the last of the red hot lovers,
The last one of our time

Father said that there's something that i think you should know,
You 're decended from don juan and romeo,
Theres nothing you can do about it no sir ree
When you grow up one day you'll be:

Chorus:

The last of the red hot lovers
When you were born a gypsy said that
you would be the last of the red hot lovers,
The last one of our time

Since father said all the things he said,
I can't believe what's going through my head,
Now when the girls start smiling at me
I hear a voice that voice says you'll be:

Chorus:(repeat 3 times)

The last of the red hot lovers
When you were born a gypsy said that you would be the last of the red hot lovers,
The last one of our time!
