Something about how
She moves me, soothes me
Whispers my name
And I'm rendered helpless

All my defenses are broken now
I'm lost in this love
And there's no easy way out

I'm gonna keep her in my mind
Just to keep her out of my heart
'Cause I don't really need to fall in love
Before we even start

I know inside
That she's the angel of my soul
She's the answer to my prayer

I know I'd better keep
Her out of sight because
They say that love is blind
I'll just keep her in mind

She is so intoxicating, amazing
Her eyes burn like fire
And I'm frozen, broken

All my defenses desert me now
I'm trying to speak
But my words don't make a sound

I'm gonna keep her in my mind
Just to keep her out of my heart
'Cause I don't really need to fall in love
Before we even start

I know inside that
She's the angel of my soul
She's the answer to my prayer

I know I'd better keep
Her out of sight because

They say that love is blind
So I'll just keep her in mind

Keep her out of my soul
Always keep her where
I can't lose control
Oh no, I'm falling, I feel it
I just can't believe it
How much that I need her right now

I'm gonna keep her in my mind
Just to keep her out of my heart
'Cause I don't really need to fall in love
(I don't wanna, I don't wanna fall)
Before we even start

I know inside that
She's the angel of my soul
She's the answer to my prayer

I'd keep her out of sight because
They say that love is blind
So I'll just keep her in mind

She's my angel, she's my soul
I don't want to lose control
Intoxicating, so amazing

She's my angel, she's my soul
I don't want to lose control
Intoxicating, so amazing
