(narrator)

Potiphar had very few cares he was one of Egypt's millionaires having made a fortune buying shares in pyramids Potiphar had made a huge pile owned a large percentage of the Nile which meant that he could really live in style and he did

(potiphar)

oh i did

(narrator)

Joseph was an unimportant slave who found he liked his master
Consequently worked much harder Even with devotion Potiphar could see that Joseph, was a cut above the average
Made him leader of his household, maximum promotion

potiphar was cool and soo fine but his wife would never toe the line its all there in chapter 39 of genesis she was beautiful but evil saw a lot of men against his will he would have to tell her that she still was his

(potiphar)

you're mine

(narrator)

Joseph's looks and handsome figure had attracted her attention every morning she would beckon

(potiphar's wife)

come and lie with me love

narrator)

joseph wanted to resist her
'til one day she proved too eager Joseph cried in vain (joseph)
please stop i dont believe in free love

(narrator)
potiphar was counting shekels in his den below the bedroom
when he heard a mighty rumpus clattering above him suddenly he knew his riches couldnt buy him what he wanted
Gold would never make him happy if she didnt love letting out a mighty roar potiphar burst through the door

(potiphar)
joseph i'll see you rot in jail the things you have done are beyond the pail

(narrator)
poor poor joseph locked up in a cell
things arent going well hey locked up in a cell...
