Sick of dancing to somebody elses song
Although I know the moves,the rhythm feels all wrong

Breathe out while Im waiting(at 23)
Reach out for something sedating(to set me free)

At 9 in the morning everythings still out of tune
Teenage dreams at 23 will drop dead in the afternoon

Breathe out while Im waiting(at 23)
Reach out for something sedating(to set me free)

don't ask me what you ought to do
can't help it,I don't have a clue
Do nt ask me-you know it's true

don't ask me what you ought to do
can't help it,I don't have a clue
It seems like they all know what's best for you

(what's best for you)
"Cease to resist,giving my good-bye"

Sometimes lifes a drag
But well have our comeback
Were all superstars
And this aint the curtain call
