"Broken Halo"

Visit "Broken Halo" on MotoLyrics.com

Why don't you take your time?
You're too hard on yourself Don't compare your life with someone else

You need space to be To appreciate yourself Now don't let them put you on a shelf

Don't sell yourself short You're worth so much more than this Don't you back down in the end

Stand up to yourself again Angel, it's all in your hands Pick up the pieces of your broken halo and Stick up for yourself again

Where's your confidence?
How'd you handcuff yourself?
Can you mend this broken halo?

Don't sell yourself short You're worth so much more than this Don't you back down in the end

Stand up to yourself again (and take your time) Angel, it's all in your hands (make up your mind) Pick up the pieces of your broken halo and Stand up for yourself again

Don't sell yourself short Cause you're worth a lot more than this Back up yourself in the end, yeah

Stand up to yourself again (and take your time) Angel, it's all in your hands (make up your mind) Pick up the pieces of your broken halo and Stick up for yourself again, yeah
