Here you are
Like a troy soldier fighting a supersized war
Got a flag to wave but you got nothing worth fighting for
You know your enemy but you just can't recall
At least you got a gun and you got your reasons

Duck and cover
They're out to get you, they're out to get you
And they're taking over
Your house, your block, your country
Duck and cover
They're gonna get you, they're gonna get you
But we got you covered
Believe, be good, beware now

Stand tall
This is not a drill, this is a battle call
You read it in the morning paper
"Protect yourself and lock the door"
Duck and cover, we got you covered so
Protect yourself and think no more
Do as we say, not as we do

Duck and cover
They're out to get you, they're out to get you
And they're taking over
Your church, your god, your country
Duck and cover
They're gonna get you, they're gonna get you
But we got you covered
So do as we say, not as we do now
(Hey - do as we say, not as we do)

Forget the question - You know the answer
Duck and cover and lock back in anger now
(Believe, be good, beware)

Forget the question - Gotta know the answer
Duck and cover and look back in anger now
Do as we say, not as we do
Hey - do as we say, not as we do
