I know I have found a perfect way to aggravate you without a word
I would cast a glance at you and then IÃ¢â¬Â€ wait until it hurts
You gotta listen to the silence, read between the lines that you canÃ¢â¬Â€ find Cause it doesnÃ¢â¬Â€ take a single word to tell you what is on my mind

So how much did you understand of everything I didnÃ¢â¬Â€ say?

Get going - You work it out
Get going - The time is running out Get going - Figure it out
No need to talk about it
Get going - You work it out
Get going - The time is running out
Get going - Go, sort it out
No need to talk about it (now!)

I can feel the tension when I look at you like a loaded gun
So you call me trigger-happy?
DonÃ¢â¬Â€ you know the show has just begun?
IÃ¢â¬Â€I stare you down, IÃ¢â¬Â€I steal your crown without a sound Tell me, are you ready for a knock-out in the final round?

So how much did you understand of everything I
didnÃ¢â¬Â€ say?
ThereÃ¢â¬Â€— truth in what you havenÃ¢â¬Â€ heard
And hush is a four-letter word
So here I sit and watch you burn
And stare until your stomach churns
You canÃ¢â¬Â€ run and you canÃ¢â¬Â€ hide IÃ¢â¬Â€ gonna strike you with my eyes
