Jealousy is a reckless driver
And ignorance is gasoline
When you're burning down the highway
With 4 wheel self esteem
You've led yourself astray
You only hear the words you say
(I wish I was as fast as you
A hot rod, a zero
I wish I was as fast as you)
Take me to the end of fun
Show me where rock & roll begins
Hot Rod, teach me how it's done

We know that you know everything
Remember that you can't turn back
Compelled to crash into a wall
If you want to be a legend
Not just a stupid know-it-all
Kick-start, speed up, crack up, burn out
