I drag my shadow around
But I wear my head like a crown
I got a mouthful of songs
And I got a storm in my lungs

And I'm on my own again
All by myself
Parade of one
So bring on the fireworks

I'm on my own again
All by myself
Parade of one

I wanna be a parade
Hear the call me the jack of all trades
I'm passing by your house today
So cheer for me, I'll be okay

When I'm on my own again
All by myself
Parade of one
So bring on the fireworks

Don't ever get too close to me
I'm out of bounds, just let me be

Don't ever get too close to me
Understand that there's no "U" in team

I drag my shadow around

Solitudes's my company
She's so bitter, so sweet
I'll never be going to sleep
You don't need to wait up for me
Cause I drag my shadow around
I'm a one man band and I'm a clown
The circus is coming to town
Just let the confetti rain down

When I'm on my own again

All by myself
Parade of one
So bring on the fireworks
Just bring out the fireworks

So bring on the fireworks
I am my own god, my own church and my religion
A fortress of mind, hard to climb, I'm fact not fiction
I'm the fireman and I'm the lighter
So bring on the fireworks
Shining like the sun and burning brighter
I am my own path, I'm a mess, my own decision, my decision
I'm right as rain, ride the train without a ticket
I bend and I break and I mend and I can take it
I am not like rocket science
I'm a one man band and the rest is silence
I bend and I break and I mend and I can take it
So bring on the fireworks
