I can't explain this messed up way
Of saying "I'm okay"
Can you explain just what it takes
To make you feel that way?
Maybe you're right
And I'm always wrong
I guess we knew it all along
I'm not gonna waste my energy
I'll keep my thoughts for me

Too bad we cannot hide
When worlds collide
Tell me something new
There's nothing we can do
Too bad we got so far
Got nowhere at all
We're nothing new
And there's nothing we can do

I'm not gonna have an argument
About having an argument
When will you ever understand
That I comprehend?
Don't wanna talk so please don't listen
To words that you're not missing
To somebody as confused as me

Too bad we got so far
Back against the wall
We're nothing new
And there's nothing we can do
