So it turned out that my record collection knows me better than you do I guess it sounds like a horny book to you or maybe just pathetic Well, now you're gone, now i'm free to do whatever i wanna do So maybe i'll toast you and fall asleep to the tv static

If your smile dies away now Then i don't care Cause i can be myself now

You can't destroy a wretched boy Nothing to believe in, god knows i don't give in You won't destroy a wretched boy Cold but I ain't freezing, i will never give in, yeah

And i'm sure i didn't ask for too much, i only asked for a lifetime Out there in the sunshine and by now i know that means without you And i cracked, i cracked, i cracked but you couldn't break me Did you think you'd make me shallow just like you (like you!)?

If your smile dies away now Then i don't care Cause i can be myself now

You can't destroy a wretched boy Nothing to believe in,
god knows i don't give in You won't destroy a wretched boy i'm cold but i ain't freezing and i will never give in Get, get, get over yourself now Cause i don't care Just, just like i got over you, yeah

You can't destroy a wretched boy Got nothing to believe in, god knows i don't give in You won't destroy a wretched boy i'm cold but i ain't freezing and i will never give in

You can't destroy a wretched boy Nothing to believe in, god knows i don't give in You won't destroy this good old boy Cause i will never give in, no i just won't give in
