You may train the eagle
To stoop down to your fist
Feed him cheese and bagels
And send him to the east
The dragon beast, he may move her
To give over her prey
But you'll never stop a lover
He will find a way
Russia may teach her children
To suppress and subdue
Philosophise their freedom
And keep from them what is true-ue-ue-ue-ue
Shake a hammer and your sickle
The individual to slay
But you'll never stop a lover
He will find a way
You both dream an empire
Of planets up on high
Searching for the God power
With stardust in your eye
The milky moon, he may wander
From golden night to silver day
But you'll never stop a lover
He will find a way
