

Donovan

"Museum Alternate Version"

Visit "Museum Alternate Version" on MotoLyrics.com

I drink sweet wine for breakfast, I slept about an hour or so

I smiled a little in the silence deciding on where to go, hmm, hmm, hmm.

"Meet me under the whale in the Natural History Museum,"

I think that's what she said, a little sad about having to go there.

Yawning in the sun, like a child I run.

But don't do it if you don't want to, I wouldn't do a thing like that.

Blue is a pretty colour, this kite's so very large,

Our love it is a liquid sunshine, so drink up all you can.

Our last dream's of the time when queen soldiers know where it's at,

The flowers even sing where our friend the caterpillar sat.

Don't you think it's time to use some of your mind,

But don't do it if you don't want to, I wouldn't do a thing
like that.

How little do you think of beauty, isn't it a shame, what ho, hmm, hmm, hmm,

Maybe you should get a power ring and make all your troubles go.

There she stood in drag, just-a lookin' cool in astrakhan.

She's lookin' so wiped out and she said I looked like Peter Pan.

Yawning in the sun, like a child I run.

But don't do it if you don't want to, hmm, hmm, hmm,

I wouldn't do a thing like that.

Don't do it,

Don't do it if you don't want to, I wouldn't do a thing like that, oh no, no,

Don't do it if you don't want to, hmm, hmm, hmm, hmm
hear,

Hear what I'm singing, yeah, yeah, hey, hey,

Hear what I'm singing, yeah, yeah, hmm, hmm, hmm,

Hear what

Visit Donovan page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.