One day when a man among the throng
Will see his way is wrong
The Universe will shine
One day when the kind you see in dreams
Will baffle all our schemes
The Universe will shine
One day with a smile a wound will heal
And with awareness feel
The Universe to shine
One day when immensity is near
This man will conquer fear
And Universe will shine
Shine ye spinning orbs of light
Shine ye crystal stars so bright
All ye harmonised by love
Set in motion, moved by love
One day when the scientist he'll see
The loving energy
Make Universe to shine
One day when the secrets of the Sun
Enlighten everyone
The Universe will shine
This day as I stand before you all
I hear the Cosmos call
The Universe will shine
Shine ye spinning orbs of light
Shine ye crystal stars so bright
All ye harmonised by love
Set in motion, moved by love
Con-cen-tri-ca-lly cycled
Perfect pa-ra-bo-lic soul
In-de-scri-ba-bly beloved
Universal Heart She said
In the silver sadness of the moon
I read a prophet rune
The Universe will shine
In the golden temple of the Sun
I see the Fiery one
The Universe will shine
Homo-Sapien am I no more
Beyond beyond I soar
The Universe Am I
