This night as cities are burning we lie
Tangled in each other's arms in the sky
I can see no end to our sad affair
You turn in your sleep and you say you don't care.

Funny you should sat that
I feel the same on this
ONE NIGHT IN TIME (twice)

Lurid the neon the streets slick with green
Rising I gaze on this sad city scene
In the cafe I remember your phrase
Our love will die on us on of these days

Funny you should sat that
I feel the same on this
ONE NIGHT IN TIME (twice)

Slowly I gather my gear as you sleep
Dirty grey dawn over factories creep

I hear the TV weatherman he say
Someone has taken the pressure away

Funny you should sat that
I feel the same on this
ONE NIGHT IN TIME (twice)

Funny you should sat that
I feel the same on this

ONE NIGHT IN TIME (fade)
