I'm feeling like, I need to go somewhere else tonight.
Cause I am so tired here and nothing seems alright.
The world it turns around on me and I am spinning.
I'm always far behind, I'm never in front, I'm never winning.
Simply put, I need a break from everything that I am.
Simply put, I need a rest from everything that I can.

[Chorus]

I think I'm better off alone and standing here.
I think I'm better off alone and standing here.

Simply put, I need a break from everything that I am.
Simply put, I need a rest from everything that I can.

I think I'm better off alone.. [x2]
Let's go!
Better off alone..alone..
