

Don't Look Down "Fade"

Just another day
Far away from being myself
Can't explain my situation
But I think I'm someone else
Sick of all your stories
The lying has affected me
When I look in the mirror
Nothing looks back at me

Just another day goes by
That you look the other way
Just another day goes by
That I see you fade away

Just another day and
I don't know what to do
Let me sit here by myself
Thinkin how to make it through
Just the same old story
I get left behind
These thoughts run through my head
Will they never die

Just another day goes by
That you look the other way
Just another day goes by
That I see you fade away
Just another day
That I'm getting over you
The wall you built up lies
I finally see through
This is your last story
The last one you tell me
And when I look at the mirror
I stare back at me

Just another day goes by
That you look the other way
Just another day goes by
That I see you fade away

Just another day goes by

That you look the other way
Just another day goes by
That I see you fade away
