She said I changed, I ain't what I used to be.
The thing that drew us together fell apart last week.
She claims I'm never, not around when she needs me.
And the word's on me, therefore they start to sound the same.

Before I was lost I took advantage of the love she gave me.

I know I was (?), felt so into the moment when she left me.

I said I (?), should've stopped her from leaving.

Now that she's gone, I feel a part of me is missing.

That's the reason why I am here.

Let me show you why you should give our love another chance.

I want to make up for those times I caused you pain.

Let me heal you where you're hurting me.

It's killing me, you're not with me.

Give me another chance.

[Give Love Another Chance Lyrics On]

Lately (ah), we've been (ah), fussing (ah), fighting (ah)
She told me that I need to grow up before I make a big mistake.

Lose what meant most.

And when I realized it was my fault, it was too late.

Before I was lost I took advantage of the love she gave me.

I know I was (?), felt so into the moment when she left me.

I said I (?), should've stopped her from leaving.

Now that she's gone, I feel a part of me is missing.

That's the reason why I am here.

Let me show you why you should give our love another chance.

I want to make up for those times I caused you pain.

Let me heal you where you're hurting me.

It's killing me, you're not with me.

I can't escape from all these bad dreams, I'm breaking down inside.
It feels so bad to realize I wasn't myself.
I caused tears to fall down from her eyes, I didn't apologize.
I was in the wrong, now I'm alone.

That's the reason why I am here.
Let me show you why you should give our love another chance.
I want to make up for those times I caused you pain.
Let me heal you where you're hurting me.
It's killing me, you're not with me.

I'm here, oh oh.
Here, here, oh oh.
Please forgive me.
