Girl I, apologize
For coming off like
I don't wanna be with you
But I hate to rush things
Girl I think this is worth than me and you

Just because I'm not around that much
Doesn't mean that I love you
Baby i sacrifice for you, and you know (Ohh)
Cuz you're the girl that makes me whole
I feel for certain when I'm with you
So just know I'm never letting you go, go

You should know I'm here to love you
Girl aint going no where
I promise that I'm here to stay with you
Don't chu think I want another
Cuz there is no one else that compares to you
Oh you got me misconstrued

Can you? I know we fight
And we slipped and said some things we didn't mean (didn't mean)
But it doesn't mean we cant out our issues out
I know you think I be in my? and I guarantee I'm here to stay

Just because I'm not around that much
Doesn't mean I don't love you
Baby I sacrifice for you, and you know (know)
You're the only girl that makes me whole
I feel for certain when I'm with you
So just know that I won't let you go, whoa

You should know I'm here to love you
Girl aint going no where
I promise that I'm here to stay with you
Don't chu think I want another
Cuz there is no one else that compares to you

There's nothing else worth more than you
Your jealousy shows you care
That's why I don't get mad
Girl stop trippin'
You know that you got a good man

Stop listening to your friends

They don't understand
What I feel for you, you got me misconstrued

You should know I'm here to love you
Girl, aint going no where
I promise that I'm here to stay with you
Don't chu think I want another
Cuz there is no one else that compares to you

You should know I'm here to love you
Girl, aint going no where
I promise that I'm here to stay with you
