"Must I Die Alone"

Star in nightlight, stainless steel Dreams of you won't make me leave Brain keeps following sound, I crawl and it's alright, can't face today coz
Your sun will never shine

There she waits arms open wide
and her heart that was once mine
Knowing all we had is gone
Those last 4 words, he wrote
"Must I die alone?"

Sold myself for tears he shed
This stone is cold above my head
The tears keep falling, in flood I drown
and it's alright, can't face today coz
Your sun will never shine

There she waits arms open wide
and her heart that was once mine
Knowing all we had is gone
Those last 4 words, she wrote
"Must I die alone?"
