Bringer of misfortune comes again
Every day it's holding your hand
You keep on rollin' rollin' on
If you let it go you lose it all
On the road that never ends
You got a lot of time to spend

When all is said and done
Pay the price all the good is gone
Am I safe no one knows
We're standing on a pile of bones

I will rise and you'll see
It's like a religion to me
I keep on rollin' rollin' on
Never let it go so I won't lose it all
On the road that never ends
I got enough time to spend
