"Jealous God"

All you have Â– i gave you
All you are Â– i made you
All you've done Â– i pushed you
All you've ever won Â– you owe to me
All you've seen Â– i showed you
All you've heard Â– i told you
All you've learned Â– i taught you
All you want, you begged for on your knees
All your pain Â– you caused it
All your heart Â– you lost it
All your soul Â– you sold it
All your bridges burned beyond repair
All your words Â– you'll swallow
All your threats, so hollow
All your faith, untested
All your squandered life
You'll never learn
Jealous god
You'll never learn
