When I call to you I'll be leaving you for dead.
Hypnotized terrified blood starts running red.
Live a life of no return mortally dead.
Feel the sea of flowing lust rushing to your head.

When I call to you I'll be leaving you for dead.
Avoid the light go and kill army of the dead.
Rats and snakes heed your name. Ruler of the night.
Letting blood to quench the thirst. Forever trapped in time.

Now your time has come you will completely change.
Go and feed teach my ways take away their pain.
Rule the world until the good... the good come to call.
Release the curse of my love till we take them all.
