You talk your talk, you talk your shit and walk away.
I'd like to kick your ass each and every day.
Know that I won't take your shit anymore.
I think it's time to show you what's in store.

I was takin' in with your constant time.
They're out to get me. I'm gonna justify.

Look to me and now you look away.
Layin' on your back you take it all the way.
Now you say that I've been deceivin' you.
You walk around and tell me what to do.

I was takin' in with your constant time.
They're out to get me. I'm gonna justify.

Swallow this and take your little pill.
You lost your self and now you've lost your will.
Listen up and do just what I say.
You will learn to live another day.

I was takin' in with your constant time.
They're out to get me. I'm gonna justify.
