My old friend, is back again, a shadow in the shade
Here it comes, a mental rain, fallin' in my head
Try my best, fight my way, forever taste the blade Resurrect, my defect, to cast it far away... and
Into the fire never to be free
Into the fire Doomshade callin' me

With desire, a living feast, on blood it must sustain
Parasite, that hides inside, never to be dead
Fresh harvest, a pound of flesh, taken from my skin
Tribute paid, up to date, I'm goin' down again... and
Into the fire burnin' in my brain
Into the fire ashes will remain

Insanity, profanity, welcome to my domain.
Suicide not far away, take me home again.

The incubus, a constant plague, with me till the end.
Tooth and claw, ripping flesh, time to heal again.
Anesthetized, demoralized, held within these chains.
The prison cell, I know too well, welcome back again...
and
Into the fire never to be free
Into the fire Doomshade callin' me
Into the fire burnin' in my brain
Into the fire Ashes will remain
