I've got this thing stuck into my head I don't expect you to understand
You walk away just like before or did you forget Your broken wings won't help you to fly because you're no angel
Seems as though I can't erase what you have done, Can't pretend
Say what you wanted to Give your words some meaning
Walk away if you dare, I've got a thing for revenge
Time and again left me on my own, completely wasted
Leave me here, waiting here, I will be fine on my own
Say what you wanted to
Give your words some meaning
