We are virtual & real
We are the hope
once the network gave to people the right to talk Get ready to fight
Cause their rage will grow They're gonna get a lot of people to kick your bone

An entire earth is looking to change mind with photo cameras and machine voice It's better you realize It's better you know
We're a mass of geeks ready to fuck you

Words on a web map
shine like a new sun
moves from the backyard
cracking the power
words on a web map
bright like a new gun
firing on net pows
cracking the power
cracking the power
cracking the power

It's a mechanical oblivion to block their doors when you never give to people the right to talk they're just so polite and they love their groove when systematical corruption just make a boom

An entire earth is looking to change mind
It's better you decide
It's better you know
We're a mass of geeks ready to fuck you

Words on a web map
shine like a new sun
moves from the backyard
cracking the power

words on a web map
bright like a new gun
firing the net paws
cracking the power
cracking the power
cracking the power
