There are many way to reach to the right.
But whichever way you choose, I lead you to there.
So I know what to do,
And I know what I say.
It's not matter what I'm Jekyll or Hyde.

I meet you all the way from your future.
I never lose you anymore.
If you can't understand,
But I know what to do,
And I know what I say.
Walking on the future to across the real.

You cried for you, cried for me,
Cried for the light because you know the dark...
Youcried for you, cried for me,
Cried for the light because you know the dark...

I never stop the miracle
I never stop the miracle
So this crazy love is difficult,
I never stop the miracle.
I never stop the miracle

So many time I want that I do it.
I'm running downtown and I search for you.
I steer you through the crowd.
I must do before.
Walking on the future to across the real.

You cried for you, cried for me,
Cried for the light because you know the dark.

I never stop.
I never stop tie miracle.
So this crazy love is difficult,
I never stop the miracle.
I never stop the miracle
I never stop the miracle

There are many way to reach to the right.
But whichever way you choose, I lead you to there.

I know what I say...
